Friends of Lake Forest Library Fall Book Sale

For the 38th year it's time to support the Friends of Lake Forest Library Fall Book Sale. The Sale will be held September 12 – 15 in the Lake Forest Rec Center Gym.

The money raised supports our outstanding children's programs. This summer children have been entertained with fifteen professional programs presented by puppeteers, jugglers, magicians, animals, etc. The programs were provided free to the children with funds from the Friends of Lake Forest Library Book Sales.

We need your children's books to support these programs.

Teen readers were able to win gift cards for books at the local bookstore or food at local restaurants. Even adults were in on the fun and could win gift certificates to local businesses.

Your donations are important to fund:

- the adult, teen, children's and parent/child reading groups held throughout the year, and the writing group
- scholarships for high school students
- art awards for local school children
- Barbara Rinella's book dramatizations twice a year

By the way, every chair you sit in has been provided or refurbished by Book Sale funds.

Homework Help Available On-Line

Live Homework Help - Connects middle school and high school students with online tutors for live, one-on-one help in math, science, English, social studies, and writing. Adults can also receive individualized career help, citizenship test prep, and GED prep. Tutors are available from 2 to 9 p.m., seven days a week. A resource library with practice exercises in core academic subjects, citizenship and standardized tests, and job search preparation is available 24/7.

Gale Virtual Reference – Need information for a research project? This authoritative database offers specialized encyclopedias, dictionaries and other full-text titles on a wide variety of topics including science, business, the Arts and history. Search individual titles or the entire collection at once.

Both products are available at the library, at home or on your mobile device.

Lake Forest Reads: Ragdale

Join your neighbors in reading The Street of a Thousand Blossoms by Gail Tsukiyama – the story of two brothers who find their way in post-war Japan. Hiroshi aspires to be a sumo wrestler while his younger brother wishes to carve masks for the Noh theater. Copies available to borrow at Lake Forest Library; copies available to purchase at Lake Forest Book Store.

Lake Forest Reads: Ragdale is a one book/one community program sponsored by Lake Forest Library and The Radgale Foundation. Gail Tsukiyama is a popular author and a Ragdale alum. All programs are open to the public. Most are free unless otherwise noted. Attend a presentation by the author on Monday 9/30/13 at 6:00 p.m. at the Library. Seating is limited and free tickets are required. Available at the Reference Desk beginning at noon on the day of the program.
