Happy Halloween! I am a little sick but we are having a party! I am so excited,I got ready and hopped onto the bus to go to school. When we got there I could not wait to see my class. I bet it is full of decorations, but when me and my class got there my teacher

Mrs.Webb said “ I don’t know what happened. I put the decorations up last night and now they are gone.”Suddenly the announcements went off.

“ Today spooky sparkles scho-” Mrs. Candy glitched off . The lights went dark then started flashing, but I still could not see anything,even though it was very loud.

All I could hear was a spooky voice saying “Come out, come out wherever you are, the lights were turned back on, but my class wasn't there.

I started to freak out “Mrs.Webb? Daisy? Anyone?” I cried.

“ You're fine, just come with me” The creepy voice moaned.

“No,” I yelled.

Then, a girl says “ Fine then I guess you don't want to save your class”.

“Fine, what do I have to do?” I say

“Follow me” the spooky voice yelled.

As smoke came out of the corners of our room that led to the middle of the room. I see a girl with black pants and a shirt with a bunch of makeup that she did not need and she had a nametag with the name. "Shadow" and I followed her to a little door that led to where I could see my classmates through a clear glass shield all cramped up. "Where is Mrs. Webb and Daisy" I ask, but before I get an answer, Shadow said "Let's play a game so you can save your little friends" "what game" I say.

Suddenly she smiles and the lights start getting brighter and everyone screams "HAPPY HALLOWEEN" but I was still confused. "What was this a joke? And If it is, where is Mrs. Webb's and who is that person" pointing at Shadow my class gets out of the glass shield and says "Shadow is not a person but Mrs. Webbs is."

Then I realized they knew that I was upset because I was sick so they surprised me. Then it is my turn to smile.

When we got back to my class Daisy was there on a ladder hanging decorations. She said she didn't want to come so she hung up the decorations. We ended the day going home to go trick or treating. Best Halloween ever!
