Funai VHS to DVD Converter

How to Use

This device requires DVD-R or DVD-RW discs. DVD+R and DVD+RW discs are NOT SUPPORTED.

1. Connect the Funai converter to your TV. Locate your TV's 'Line In ports.' Connect the appropriate Cable to either the 'Composite In' or 'HDMI In' port on your TV, then connect to either the 'HDMI Out' or 'Composite Out' on the Funai converter. HDMI is preferred. Next, plug in the Funai converter's power cord.

2. Change the Input or Source on your TV. This most likely will be HDMI 1 or HDMI 2.
3. Press the POWER button on the Funai converter or the remote.
4. Load your DVD and VHS media. Insert a blank DVD-R/DVD-RW disc, label side up. Insert the VHS tape you want to convert.
5. Next you will choose your recording mode. Press SETUP on the remote. See image →
6. Select General Setting, then Recording, then Dubbing Mode, then VCR → DVD. Press SETUP to exit.

7. Press DVD on the remote. The indicator light on the front of the Funai converter switches from VCR mode to DVD mode. The TV screen will remain blank.

8. On the remote, press REC MODE repeatedly until the desired recording mode is set. If you are unsure which recording mode to use, press REC MODE until SP is selected.

Recording Mode
You can choose a recording mode from 5 options. Recording time will depend on the recording mode you select as follows:
Disc size	Recording mode	Recording time	Video/sound quality
8cm Disc	XP (1Hr)	18 min	☆☆☆☆☆ (good)
	SP (2Hr)	36 min	☆☆☆☆
	LP (4Hr)	72 min	☆☆☆
	EP (6Hr)	108 min	☆☆
	SLP (8Hr)	144 min	☆ (poor)
12cm Disc	XP (1Hr)	60 min	☆☆☆☆☆ (good)
	SP (2Hr)	120 min	☆☆☆☆
	LP (4Hr)	240 min	☆☆☆
	EP (6Hr)	360 min	☆☆
	SLP (8Hr)	480 min	☆ (poor)

9. Press VCR on the remote, then press the play icon  to find the point at which you start recording. Press pause  when you are ready to start recording from that point.
10. Press D. DUBBING on the remote. The video should start playing, which means you have started recording.
11. When you are ready to stop recording, press the STOP button on the remote.
12. The DVD disc must be finalized in order to be playable. Press SETUP, then navigate down and select DVD MENU, then FINALIZE, then OK.
13. Use the arrows to select Yes, then press OK. At this point it will begin finalizing your disc. Finalizing may take several minutes or up to an hour, depending how much content and in which mode you have recorded.
